

Betty Lou Papst

August 2, 1933 - December 8, 2015

Papst, Betty Lou passed December 8th of natural causes at Rivergate Health Center in Riverview. She was 82 years old and known for her feisty nature, her continuous smile, and reputation as the best head cook at The Forge restaurant many years ago. She was also an avid Elvis Presley fan and had like mind friends from one end of the country to the other. She is survived by her children, Lin Roman, Robert Schmetzer, Annette Loomis and sister Mathilda Schaefer. Proud grandmother of 7. She had requested a private cremation at the Heritage Funeral Home in Southgate. 734-285-1300. A memorial service will take place there the first week in January, date yet to be announced.

“ Betty was a wonderful beautiful person and never heard her say anything bad about anybody, and her love for Elvis was always in her heart. I know the good Lord had a special place for her in Heaven and she is looking down on us and saying don't worry about me I'm alright. We love you Betty!! Jim and Martha!

During Betty's visits to Fairfield we shared several visits with her laughing enjoying her smile and quick wit. Betty was such a positive lady that so loved her beautiful daughter Linda. Our sincere sympathy to Betty's family.

“ The Jackson Girls met Betty at one of the Elvis shows that we went to over 15 yrs. ago and had become very close since then. My mom (her Buddy as Betty use to refer her as), my sister Star, moms cousin Laveta, Nancy and I thought the world of her and will miss her terribly. We always had so much fun at the shows with her. I have many fond memories of her. One in particular was the night mom and myself went to a show and dinner that Matt was performing at near Bettys. We went to the show and spent the night at Bettys. It was a fun time. We had gone over to visit her a few more times before and after that. She was always smiling no matter where she was at. We love you Betty, rest in Heaven!

“ My mother was very blessed to have inner beauty as well as outer beauty as well as he many friends and relatives who loved her so much! She was the most energetic vivacious person I have ever known. There is a huge void in my life as she filled so much of my heart and mind while down here with me. She could never see her own beauty in the mirror so I hope God will let her see how lovely she is now with Him.
