“ My mother,Barbara,my aunt Gwen,Auntie Chris,and I all went to lunch at Olive Garden. I hadn't spent any time with Auntie Chris lately,except for family events,so it was a treat to spend quality time with her. While we were eating,I told her a dirty joke. I thought I had shocked her,instead she got the biggest grin,and then the biggest belly laugh came out of her! We all had tears in our eyes we were laughing so hard! I hadn't heard that laugh in a long time- and it is something I will always remember. Also, when we would go visit weekly at her house when I was little,I remember her love of ceramics,and being amazed by all of beautiful items she made,and completely in awe that she could paint something one color,and it would completely change to another when it was done. There are many more,too many to list here. I love you Auntie! ❤️
