“ Hey Chris this is your cousin Casey I just talked to you less then two months ago , when you lived here in wy with us we made alot of memories togerher and even my little Cody grew a wonderful bond with you ,he keeps asking about you when I let him know that you are now im heaven with you're mom my aunt Linda and you're dad . I miss them nights when we just sit up all night watching (horror) movies both are favorit. When you got your first job out here you demanded to take me on a shopping spree and told me to get anything I want and us just goofing around like two kids :) and the wonderful bbq we had like my dad your uncle David burning the siding on the house lol because his grill went in flames and we where all just to busy laughing around the table . I'm going to miss you so much Chris I love you with all my heart and since we got that call on the 8th I have nothing but pure sadness even walking pass our couch I just see you sitting there laying down and kicking back... I just really want you too know I'm truley missing you !!

“ Chris, I love you yesterday, today and tomorrow. The song "Forever Young" keeps playing in my head. I think of you. You are gone way to soon. You had so much to live for. But my heart is comforted to know that you are in the arms of Jesus with your mom and dad. Whenever I was concerned for you, you would say "I'm ok Aunt Barb". Now I know you are. Your leaving has left a hole in this family that no one else could ever fill. I will miss you until the day I see you in heaven. I won't say goodbye because I'll see ya later.

Love you

Aunt Barb
