“ Awww, Kathy, such a sweet and Beautiful Lady. I can't think of Anyone stronger than you. I remember going to Stevie B's for Dave's Birthday a few years back, and seeing you smiling and looking so pretty and well, this was after your first surgery. And this past August, at the Allen Park Street Fair, I bumped into you, Karen, and Dave. You had your little walker which turned into a chair-but there you were. walking, smiling, chatting, sitting when you got tired. Remember Carol and I giving you and Karen those little lotion jars? We saw you so many times, also at Karen and Dave's house-remember the Dream Cruise last summer, and even tho you were in pain, you sure made your way around the cruise area. What I'll always remember is how you always had a smile, you were always chatting with us, you never complained, but most of all, Your Strength. And now Heaven has Gained a Another Angel. Rest, Sweetheart. Love, Wendy Stevenson
