“ Aunt Martha leaves memories of her strong spirit, intelligence, and her generous and caring nature. I will always recall her smile and value the times we spent. She was generous with her memories and shared her love. She told me, "Know that you are loved." I know she is loved and will be missed by so many. Lynzee Engel Browning

“ Aunt Martha was a remarkable lady who always treasured family. I have a sweet memory from my childhood about Aunt Martha. The Engel family was visiting my family in Mt. Sterling and it was bedtime. The Engel boys and I were gathered on the floor with pillows and blankets supposedly ready for sleep. As would be expected, we were having a difficult time falling to sleep so Aunt Martha sang to us 'Baby's Boat the Silver Moon Sailing in the Sky.' Her voice was soothing and comforting so we soon fell asleep. This is probably my earliest memory of her but one I find comforting to this day. Aunt Martha will be missed. Blessings, Dan Madden

I met Aunt Martha when I married Dan. She was an amazing lady who was a dedicated daughter, a supportive wife and an energetic mother. She made the trip from Detroit to Iowa often to spend time with her mother. She recognized each of her children's individual strengths and accepted their differences, and therefore her family developed a closeness throughout the years. I admired the independence she demonstrated when she became a widow - she continued to live life to its fullest. She was a great role model for those around her and will be missed. Blessings to her family. Kathy Madden
