“ Dear Theresa and Bob as well as all who loved Bobby!

The sound of his voice, the strength of his hands, the kindness of his eyes, the comfort of his presence . . . When you remember these, he will be near. My prayer for you is that our Precious Savior will wrap His loving arms of comfort, peace and strength about each of you at this very difficult time.

My heart wept when I heard the news. Always remember, hearts that are connected in life cannot be separated by death ~~ death is not that powerful. Each of us must find the path that keeps our loved ones secure and always in our hearts and memories.

Bobby was truly a very kind man, and would go out of his way to help those in need. The kindness of a man is shown when you see how he treats his dog, and he treated Rico like royalty. He would always make it a point to bring Rico out to see me and get in my car, like he thought I was going to take him for a ride. I miss seeing him when I would go to pick up my sister, Sandy, to go someplace. We would often have long talks about God and how He would always be there for us.

With love and sympathy to all of you at this very difficult time!

“ My heart goes out to Bobby's family, I'm so sorry for your loss. We lived across the street from him and his family in Brownstown and he was such a sweet, happy man. He loved to bring Rico over to get petted and play with the kids. He was funny and kind and could always make you smile. Forever in our hearts. Rest in peace.

“ I always knew Bobby to make me smile and feel like I mattered. He was a great communicator and could make me laugh. He struggled through much adversity and wasn't always perfect, but he kept pressing onward always trying to make a difference. He loved his family... Grandma Linda...Jitter...especially his daughter Maria. I remember talking with him for the entire night once when he was troubled about his relationship with his daughter. He really really loved her and was concerned she would know how he felt.

He made a difference in this life we share, and I am very saddened to learn of his passing.

“ Robert was such a sweet, kind, compassionate and caring man and will be missed so very much by so many. He was always a Blessing in my life and especially as we spoke often about his love and trust in his Lord his Savior Jesus. He is now rejoicing in Heaven and walking on the streets of gold. We will see him again one day and then it will be forever. God Bless you Bob, Teresa and family. You all are in my prayers. Sandy
