“ I live at the Paluch Senior Apts. Silvia was one of the first people I met when I moved in almost 6 years ago. She always greeted me with a smile & made me feel like I was special. Everyone here speaks fondly of her. She will be missed, but we are also glad that her suffering has ended. Hugs & prayers. Kathy Apt 7

“ What a wonderful explanation of Death....

A sick man turned to his doctor, as he was preparing to leave the examination room and said, "Doctor, I am afraid to die. Tell me what lies on the other side."

Very quietly, the doctor said, "I don't know."

"You don't know? You, a Christian man, do not know what is on the other side?"

The doctor was holding the handle of the door; on the other side came a sound of scratching and whining, and as he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, "Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here, and when the door opened, he sprang in without fear. I know little of what is on the other side of death, but I do know one thing... I know my Master is there and that is enough."

“ The first thing that comes to mind is her beautiful welcoming smile. She was my hair stylist as a young girl. I only trusted her because I was afraid to have anyone else. I will miss her kind words and beautiful smile. Our family gatherings growing up will be treasured deep in my heart. Rest in peace Silvia. You are now in Gods loving hands. 🙏 I will miss you
