“ Dear Marcus, Carolyn, Bruce and Family,

I just learned of the passing of Virgil. My wife Nancy, sister Jodee Todd, her husband Charles Todd and I express our deepest sympathies to all of you. I remember all of the good times working as a busboy at Ciungan's Shrimp House. Your father instilled in me, the work ethic that I carried into my career and life. Virgil was a wonderful role model for all of us who had the honor of knowing him.

May he rest in peace and be together with your mother in heaven. Virgil and family our in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

Charlie Coman and the Coman-Todd Family

“ Sympathy, thoughts and prayers for the Ciungan family. Virgil was one of my best friends. From the time Mom bought Ida's Bar, the times at the Wyandotte Yacht Club and the Shrimp House until this past summer we always kept in touch. Virgil's kind heart, knowledge, encouragement and humor will always hold dear to me. Virgil bestowed a Rainbow of Hope upon all he met. God and Heaven welcomed Virgil with open arms. Virgil was one of a kind "from the old school" and surely will be missed by all. Blessings to your family for sharing you with us!. You will always hold a special place in my heart and prayers. Rest in Peace my friend. Tina (Sabuda-Michel) Steinbrecher,

“ My husband, Barry, worked at Baklarz Super Market and delivered orders to the kitchen door. He's often told the story of Virgil telling him to sit down and share a meatloaf with him. He was a generous, fun-loving man. My family lived on White and 2nd, only a block behind the Shrimp House. The shrimp was delicious and we had OH family who loved coming to town just for the shrimp!

“ Growing up in Ecorse I was fortunate to land a job busing tables for Virgil and his brother Eli at the Shrimp House. Both men were more than fair and extremely forgiving bosses. It was a good job at a great restaurant filled with hard working people many of whom I still consider friends almost 50 years later. R.I.P. Mr.C

“ I am very saddened to see that Virgil has passed. Somewhere in heaven, he's standing over a fish fryer, frying fish as only Virgil could. He was a true mentor to a lot of us. I saw him every day for the better part of 13 years that I worked at Flappers, which became sort of Virgil's second home, along with Uncle NoNo right there with him. He led a very nice, full life. May he now be at peace with Kaye by his side. Thoughts and prayers are with the family. RIP Virgil. Sincerely, Sharon Reynolds Pilch.

“ Grew up with Greg and Michael, and got to know Virgil well over the years hanging out in the shrimp House. He sponsored my bowling team for many years and we were all proud to wear the Shrimp House logo on our team's shirts and jackets. I spent many late nights at the Shrimp house with Virgil, Doc, Inch, and Bob Cress. What a time they all must be having up there in heaven. RIP my friend.
